

Further Cautionary Statement

Further to the previously published cautionary statements, the most recent of which was issued on 10 December 2025, regarding the proposed disposal of the Company's and its co-shareholder's shares in Makasa Sun (Private) Limited, the Directors of First Capital Bank Limited wish to advise all shareholders and the investing public that the transaction has now received exchange control approval and is currently awaiting the remaining regulatory approvals. The market will be notified upon completion.

Accordingly, shareholders are advised to continue exercising caution when dealing in the Company's shares.
